TO THE TWELFTH VOLUME.

The Letter P signifies that the Piece to which it is annexed is to be found in the Poetry; and the Letter R intimates that it is an Article in our Review.

Ever anxious to gratify the wishes of our subscribers, as far as in our power lies, we inform our Anonymous Correspondents, that, upon transmitting the proposed pecuniary indemnification, we can procure a capital bust of Buonaparte from the finishing touch of an eminent French Artist; and from which we have no objection to produce a fine Engraving, printed in Colours.

For the accommodation of such of our subscribers as wish for complete sets of Coloured Plates, (being already in possession of the work from the First Number) upon producing the plain prints, they may be supplied with them at 10s. 6d. per set.

Our Durham correspondent is too long for the Monthly Visitor.

From accident, the editors are persuaded many of H. S.'s articles have been mislaid.

This month we have completed W. Case's valuable article, and shall be happy to hear from him again, either in prose or verse.

*. A capital Portrait of COWPER, the Poet, will embellish the first number of the next volume.
